- c) applying to the doctorate program after having obtained a master’s degree from another postgraduate program accredited by CAPES at the time the degree was awarded, provided that the field of knowledge in which the title was conferred be compatible with the chosen field of concentration;
- d) The exemption shall be verified and authorized by the President of the CPG.

6 – FEE REDUCTIONS

Pursuant to State Law n° 12.782 of 20th December 2007, a 50% (fifty percent) reduction of the fees specified in clause 4 of the present Notice shall be granted to applicants that cumulatively meet the following criteria:

- a. are regularly matriculated in a higher education institution at an undergraduate or graduate level, provided a certificate of enrollment is submitted;
- b. perceive a monthly income of less than two minimum wages, provided either an income statement or a personal written statement of unemployment is submitted.

7 – HUMAN RIGHTS AREA

One-third of the vacancies available in this area shall be reserved, through a weighted system of selection, to applicants who:

- a. belong to black or indigenous ethnic groups;
- b. suffer from serious physical disability;
- c. are facing economic hardship.

Applicants who fall within any of the above-mentioned criteria may apply via the “integration application form” available at: http://www.direito.usp.br/pos/arquivos/Form_vagas_direcionadas.pdf

Those who apply to this field may have the FUVEST fee waived and must follow the instructions that accompany the complementary information regarding “Social Integration Policies” available at: http://www.direito.usp.br/pos/arquivos/folder_medidas_2013.pdf

8 – STAGES OF THE SELECTION PROCESS

Pursuant to Resolution FD n° 52/04, issued by the Governing Body of the Faculty of Law of the University of São Paulo, the selection process shall consist of three successive stages of elimination for admission in any of the Postgraduate Programs (master’s, doctorate and direct-doctorate), as follows:

8.1 – FIRST STAGE: a foreign language proficiency examination, organized by FUVEST:

Applicants must demonstrate proficiency in one foreign language in order to be eligible for the master’s program, or in two foreign languages in the case of the doctorate program, by receiving a minimum score of 7.00 in the proficiency examinations for French, English, German and/or Italian.

Proficiency in Portuguese is also required of foreign applicants, for which purpose the essay examination shall also be evaluated accordingly.

Applicants shall have access to their respective foreign language proficiency examination on 23rd August 2012, at the FDUSP Postgraduate Office, from 10:00 until 16:00.

8.2 – SECOND STAGE: an essay examination, organized by FDUSP. Only applicants who pass and/or are exempted in the previous stage may participate. The examination shall assess legal knowledge within the field of concentration chosen by the applicant. Applicants must obtain a minimum score of 7.00 in order to be approved, as per the criterion of an FDUSP professor designated by the CPG. Essays that receive a score below 7.00 but not lower than 5.00, shall be automatically submitted for reevaluation by another FDUSP professor, also designated by the CPG, who shall establish whether the applicant is approved or not.

- a) The essay examination shall take place from 14:00 until 17:00. Applicants must enter the examination rooms by 13:45 at the latest. Past this time (13:45), applicants shall not be permitted to enter the examination rooms.
- b) Applicants must carry an identification document with a picture and a blue ink ball pen. No consultation material of any kind shall be permitted, as the examination is strictly closed-book.
- c) At the onset of the examination one of the essay topics listed in clause 12 of this Notice shall be randomly chosen.
- d) In the case of fields of concentration containing sub-fields, applicants must choose the essay topic that corresponds to the desired sub-field and may not, under any circumstances, submit an essay on more than one topic.
- e) Applicants shall have access to their respective essay examinations on 16th October 2012, at the FDUSP Postgraduate Office, from 10:00 until 16:00.

8.3 – THIRD STAGE: Selection of candidates by advisors, organized by FDUSP. Advisors shall select the first round of candidates between 29th October and 9th November 2012. Pursuant to Article 10 of Resolution FD n°52/2004, the third stage of the selection process comprises:

- a) an evaluation of the applicant's curriculum vitae and research project;
- b) an interview, at the advisor's discretion, and/or
- c) a specific examination.

8.3.1 – Applicants must submit their choice of intended advisor within the previously selected field of concentration and submit at the Postgraduate Office, between 18th and 24th October 2012, the following documents:

- a) Two copies of the advisor application form, available at http://www.direito.usp.br/pos/arquivos/ficha_selecao_orientador_2012.pdf. One of the copies shall be returned to the applicant to be kept as a receipt.
- b) A research project within the line of research of the intended advisor containing: (i) the research theme and its boundaries; (ii) the rationale and relevance of the theme chosen; (iii) the main issues to be discussed; (iv) bibliography, and (v) in the case of doctoral candidates, the original contribution to Brazilian legal science. Obs.: one copy of the research project must be submitted in printed form and the other in PDF format via labeled CD-ROM.
- c) Lattes curriculum in printed form (www.cnpq.br). Curricula that do not conform to this standard shall not be accepted.
- d) The documents must be submitted in hole-punched paper sheets held together by a clasp and placed in a labeled plastic folder with an elastic fastener.

9 - SECOND ROUND OF ADMISSION BY ADVISORS

a) Provided there are vacancies available, applicants who are not admitted in the first round of admission may be invited through Notice FD/PÓS/SEL. n° 10/2012 to participate in the second round of admissions, which is to take place between 3rd and 7th December 2012.

The specific instructions regarding selection criteria for the second round of admissions by advisors shall be published in Bulletin FD/PÓS/SEL. n° 04/2012.

10 - INITIAL MATRICULATION

10.1 Selected candidates must matriculate on the dates established by the CPG and published by the Postgraduate Office. In order to matriculate, selected candidates must submit the following documents:

- a. A copy of the candidate's duly registered bachelor's degree, complete academic transcripts or a certificate containing the date in which the course was completed and the date of graduation at an officially accredited institution.
- b. For those who seek matriculation into the doctoral program, a copy of the candidate's master's degree and a certificate of accreditation issued by CAPES to the master's program that awarded the degree (only applicable to candidates who have completed a master's course in another postgraduate program accredited by CAPES);
- c. Foreigner Identification Document (RNE) and/or passport, in the case of foreign applicants;
- d. A plain copy of the candidate's Identity Document (RG);
- e. A plain copy of the candidate's Tax Identification Number (CPF);
- f. A plain copy of the candidate's Voter Identity Card;
- g. A plain copy of the candidate's Reserve Certificate;
- h. A plain copy of the candidate's Birth or Marriage Certificate.

11 – FINAL DISPOSITIONS

- 11.1 All proceedings and filings at the Postgraduate Office (located on Largo de São Francisco, 95 – 3rd intermediate floor of the Annexed Building) shall take place between 10:00 and 16:00.
- 11.2 Scores shall not be reviewed.
- 11.3 Only vacancies previously approved by the Postgraduate Studies Commission may be filled.
- 11.4 Applicants may not change their choice of field of concentration, postgraduate level or advisor during the selection process, except in the case of a joint selection process involving two or more professors, pursuant to Article 11 and sole paragraph of Resolution FD n° 52/2004 or following the dispositions established set forth in FD/CPG/SEL. n° 01/2010.
- 11.5 Selected candidates previously admitted into and subsequently excluded from a Postgraduate Program offered by any college, school or institute belonging to the University of São Paulo must also observe the provisions set forth in Article 55 of the Postgraduate Statute of the University of São Paulo.

11.6 No fees shall be charged upon matriculation.

11.7 Any unforeseen cases shall be resolved by the President of the CPG.
